It isn't clear if Toutiao can maintain its pace of growth, even with a major acquisition like TikTok under its belt. While Toutiao is top-of-mind when discussing viral news feeds, it remains a relatively niche product " at least compared to WeChat and other messaging apps run by Tencent.",

Due to TikTok's popularity on social media, other companies are following in its footsteps. Snapchat parent company Snap Inc., for example, recently rolled out its own musical.ly clone called "Stories. It was designed with an older audience " teens and young adults " in mind, and has features that differentiate it from TikTok, including the ability to add music to videos.",

This app is similar to Snapchat and one good thing to point out about TikTok is that it doesn't require a username or an account login for you to use it so you can use it on your public profile as well. If you are looking for a video sharing application which allows users to create, watch, and share videos with friends on various social networks like Facebook, Twitter, Instagram etc. then you should try TikTok.", TikTok was initially launched in February of 2021 by a guy named Evan Spiegel together with an ex-entrepreneur named Bobby Murphy and the app was then acquired by tech giant Snap Inc. in April of 2021. Many people have become new users thanks to its ability to allow users to share their own videos, short videos, and more while answering viewers' specific questions and sharing advice on how to live life better. It's been reported that the userbase has increased massively since July 5th, where it reached over 100 million monthly users worldwide. The app is now recognized as one of the biggest social media apps in the world alongside other popular social media apps such as Facebook. By the end of August, Spiegel removed a number of Twitter and Facebook-like features (emotions, likes, photos) from the app in order to make it more suitable for its users.", TikTok has been criticised for allowing profanity in some of its videos, as well as encouraging some of its videos to be posted publicly. This is because casual profanity does not have the same impact or consequence in Chinese culture as it would otherwise have in English or American culture. There are many examples of offensive, inappropriate or dangerous behaviour on TikTok, and some users have found it difficult to identify when this behaviour is acceptable and when it is not. Some of this behaviour could be seen as encouraging users to behave in a similar way if they are in a similar situation.",

On February 16, 2021, Musical.ly filed another lawsuit in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York against Snapchat as well as its parent company Snap Inc., alleging that these companies had falsely claimed in advertising materials that they had no similar patents-related claims against AppsFlyer Technologies (which provides analytics services for app developers). In this lawsuit, Musical.ly claimed that Snapchat had infringed on four patents including US Patent Nos. 8,426,604 and 9,446,633 from a 2021 patent application by AppsFlyer Technologies for real-time engagement analytics for mobile applications; it also claimed that Snapchat had violated US Patent Nos. 6,192,977 and 8,526,721 which AppsFlyer had assigned to Snapchat in 2021. In addition to compensation for damages from these related claims, Musical.ly sought injunctive relief requiring Snapchat and Snap Inc. to withdraw its advertising materials.", Older accounts can still watch user-generated videos, however they can not create or share any of their own. They are instead limited to just viewing what other people are posting through the app's various features. TikTok is available for download on iOS and Android platforms. Released in Japan, the first version of "TikTok" was optimized for iOS devices. Subsequently, it was released worldwide as a non-Japanese version named "TiK".",

There have been concerns that the application has attracted pedophiles posing as teenagers to lure children. Others are concerned about the amount of time that young people are spending on this application. In addition, there has been concern about content uploaded depicting self-harming and suicide methods.",

In an article published by The Next Web, it was alleged that "Notably, the company's new valuation comes about six months after Bytedance announced a $3 billion raise from investors led by SoftBank." This article was published on The Next Web. In an article published by TechCrunch, it was alleged that "Bytedance is a Chinese company that develops and runs some of the most popular apps in the country. It operates some of China's most popular messaging apps including WeChat, which has more than 1 billion active monthly users around the world." This article was published on TechCrunch.", TikTok also contributes to issues regarding copyright infringement by allowing users to use copyrighted material without permission. TikTok's advertising model allows users to receive payments from brands to create, upload and share their own videos or posts, similar to Instagram. However, due to the difficulty of tracking the engagement that its user base generates, TikTok has been called out for the low monetization rates it offers its creators.",

TikTok was created in order to help users express themselves through visual media such as music and video in a more freeform manner compared to Instagram or Twitter, where users are more confined in how much content they can post without fear of being edited out by their followers. The success of TikTok also lies in its uses as a marketing tool for brands. A study performed by UpStream found that 41% of users on TikTok are engaged with brands and 47% of users follow at least one brand. Some brands are making their own content on the platform such as Coca-Cola, FC Barcelona and others.",
