In May 2021, it was reported that TikTok removed approximately 175 million videos between January and May of that year. As of June 2021 TikTok has removed more than a billion videos, which is 10 times the amount of views in that time period. On top of the time and monetary costs associated with removing content, it can result in the loss of advertising revenue for creators who could lose loyal followers due to annoyance from account closures.", Musical.ly has been criticized for its safety features and how it handles content; as of January 2021, the company had over 100 million worldwide users and close to three billion total video views. Safety and privacy concerns have also been raised about a number of high profile incidents within its community, including bullying, harassment, suicidal behavior, school shootings and self-harm. Teenagers and younger audiences who join Musical.ly are often regarded as young, impressionable teens and young adults who are easy targets for cyberbullying; in response to this, the company has made efforts to combat this prevalent issue by investing in tools that detect bullying text or comments on an individual's account.",

The app has also been used to help promote charitable causes. In Japan in May 2021, the app teamed up with the Japanese Red Cross while in July 2021, it partnered with UNICEF and its Baby + Me campaign.",

At the end of 2021, Hot video launched a new update that added the mode "GIF" to TikTok FYP. Unlike the previous version, GIF is a motion photo app while TikTok FYP is a motion short video app. Unlike TikTok FYP's 15 sec-long motion video, GIF can be created up to 6 seconds long and can be shared with friends on both social media accounts and through text messages. This allows users to record videos on their phone and then convert them into GIFs using the app. Users are also able to view and follow other people's GIFs without having to follow them on Instagram or Snapchat. The conversion is called "GIF View". Another benefit of this update is it allows users to create their GIFs directly into the app without having to download a separate application.",

You can share your recorded videos from TikTok on other social media platforms like Facebook, Twitter and Instagram with just a few clicks of your mouse or tapping some buttons on your mobile application. You can also add music to the videos which are saved in your device. The app also allows you to create and join group conversations on TikTok. You can invite new members to the group anywhere with a click of a button by sending them a request for joining the group.",

The only remaining question is whether TikTok can continue to grow into a brand that people trust like WeChat in China. Many users of the app have openly voiced their concerns about this, worrying that the app may develop a reputation for being more like Facebook than Instagram (which is more closely related to Twitter). If this turns out to be true, then TikTok may see a dip in share price.",

In May 2021, "The Guardian" published an article regarding how TikTok was creating viral internet stars with millions of followers at their disposal. The app was reported to have created a new type of celebrity by helping users create videos that fit their personal interests and hobbies and then help them to garner followers through the use of simple technologies such as using facial recognition to identify celebrities within videos. The piece also stated that the app had also permitted users to make money by selling sponsored content or charging a small fee for following another user.",
